

WEXNER CENTER STORE ONLY AUTHORIZED APPLE® CAMPUS STORE AT THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

STORE TO CARRY WIDE VARIETY OF APPLE® PRODUCTS STARTING IN LATE SEPTEMBER

The elegant designs and forward-thinking technology of Apple® will be available in the Wexner Center Store starting Monday, September 24 (with demo products on hand September 19). The Store, located in the lower lobby of the Wexner Center for the Arts, will be the only retailer of Apple® products at The Ohio State University.

“We are very pleased to be an Apple® authorized campus store,” says Matt Reber, store manager. “As an international arts center with an eye always on innovative, cutting-edge technology and design, this partnership with Apple is a natural one for us.”

The Store will stock iPods® (including the new iPod Touch®), iMacs®, MacBooks®, software, and more. The Ohio State University’s faculty, staff and students as well as Wexner Center for the Arts patrons can shop for Apple® products and enjoy Apple Education Pricing on Macs and Apple® software. In addition to in-store sales, the Wexner Center Store will also handle special orders for all Apple® products.

This partnership is part of a larger Ohio State University program which will also include a new computer retail outlet slated to open in the Central Classrooms Building later this year. This outlet will offer both Apple® and PC products.

The Wexner Center Store is open Monday 10 am–4 pm, Tuesday & Wednesday 10 am–6 pm, Thursday & Friday 10 am–8 pm, Saturday 11 am–8 pm, and Sunday 11 am–6 pm.
