

wexner center
for the arts

For Immediate Release

September 26, 2001

Contact: Karen Simonian, 614 292-9923 or simonian.4@osu.edu

BRAZIL CELEBRATED AT CARNAVAL FAMILY DAY

Carnaval Family Day—a fun-filled afternoon of free activities for children ages 4 to 12—will be held at the Wexner Center Sunday, October 14 from noon to 4 pm. Admission is free.

At this event, children will explore the music and culture of Brazil. Activities include Brazilian songs, a samba parade, an outdoor mural, percussion instrument-making, and a performance by local band Brasileira. See the enclosed brochure for a complete schedule.

Family Days, held three times a year at the Wexner Center, brings in hundreds of kids with accompanying adults. The events are acclaimed for their creative and educational activities. For more information contact Rebecca Schlesinger, Educator for Family and Youth Programs at 688-8704 or schlesinger.13@osu.edu.

2001–2002 education season presented with lead season support from the Borden Family of Companies.

2001–2002 Family Day series presented with major support from Honda of America Mfg., Inc.

Programs for children and families presented with additional support from Ameritech/SBC, 12 1/4 Circle (an active group of Wexner Center members), and the Wexner Center Foundation.

The Wexner Center for the Arts is The Ohio State University's multidisciplinary, international laboratory for the exploration and advancement of contemporary art. Through exhibitions, screenings, performances, artist residencies, and educational programs, the Wexner Center acts as a forum where established and emerging artists can test ideas and where diverse audiences can participate in cultural experiences that enhance understanding of the art of our time. In its programs, the Wexner Center balances a commitment to experimentation with a commitment to traditions of innovation and affirms the university's mission of education, research, and community service.

###30###

news release