FREE FAMILY DAY INSPIRED BY MOOD RIVER DESIGN EXHIBITION

Dream It and Design It Family Day—an afternoon of hands-on activities inspired by Mood River, the Wexner Center's exhibition of contemporary design and art—will be held at the Center Sunday, May 5 from noon to 4 pm. The event is for children ages 4–12 and accompanying adults. No registration is required, and admission is free.

The day's activities include kite-making; kite-flying demonstrations; puppet-making; edible art; dancing; a performance by Phoenix Theater Circle; and a self-guided gallery discovery tour. See the enclosed brochure for a complete schedule.

Hundreds of kids from all over the city attend the Wexner Center's acclaimed Family Days. For more information on the Wexner Center or Family Days, the public can visit www.wexarts.org/ed or call 614 292-6493 for a free brochure.

The Wexner Center for the Arts is The Ohio State University's multidisciplinary, international laboratory for the exploration and advancement of contemporary art. Through exhibitions, screenings, performances, artist residencies, and educational programs, the Wexner Center acts as a forum where established and emerging artists can test ideas and where diverse audiences can participate in cultural experiences that enhance understanding of the art of our time. In its programs, the Wexner Center balances a commitment to experimentation with a commitment to traditions of innovation and affirms the university's mission of education, research, and community service.
