

VOGUE

Fall's Best Art Shows

Our own Dodie Kazanjian scours the world's most intriguing art exhibitions—from New York to London—and brings you the best of what fall has to offer.

4.

Luc Tuymans

Wexner Center for the Arts

17 September 2009–3 January 2010

This is the first U.S. retrospective of Belgian artist Luc Tuymans, who is among the world's most accomplished and influential painters. (It is jointly organized by the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art and the Wexner Center.) It travels to San Francisco (SFMOMA/6 February 2010–2 May 2010), and then to the Dallas Museum of Art, and ending up at the Museum of Contemporary Art in Chicago.

http://www.style.com/vogue/feature/2009/09/falls-best-art-shows/?mbid=rss_feature